"I know very little about your Father's family. Suzie and Kennie's Father were alcoholics. The family originally came from Oklahoma; Suzie's father was Indian - or at least part Indian from what Kennie said. Anita first met him in Fremont High-School [Los Angeles, CA] where he graduated in the Winter class of January 1934. Dick and I were in the Summer class of June 1934."

"Anita started going out with him [and other boys] in late 1932 when she started HS in Sept ' 32 as a 9th grader. I was in the 11th grade."

Death Notes: Esophageal cancer
Cause of death listed in Arvid's Obituary,
Published in The Daily Sentinel on April 4, 2010
Grand Junction, Mesa, Colorado

Noted events in his life are:

1. His obituary was published in the Obituary on 20 Mar 2010. Arvid Lawrence Faudskar

Arvid Lawrence Faudskar April 19, 1933 March 20, 2010 Arvid Faudskar left his earthly home to be with his heavenly Father on March 20, 2010, the first day of spring. He fought a 16 month battle against esophageal cancer with unbelievable strength and courage. We give special thanks to Drs. King, Hancock and Seeberger, Ann, the dietician, all the caring staff from Hospice and to all who offered zillions of prayers, sent cards and brought food for him and his family. He wanted anyone who has a history of gastric reflux to heed this advice. "Ask your doctor to scope your esophagus to look for the early signs of this difficult to treat cancer." Arvid was the son of Marie Averill and Lawrence Chester Faudskar (deceased). His legacy and sources of extreme pride are his children and grandchildren. He is survived by his inseparable love and wife of 49 years, Barbara; his daughter, Leah Faudskar, her husband, Woody Enerson, "One and Only" granddaughter, Taylor, and grandson, Matt; his son, Larry Faudskar and wife, Michelle, and grandsons, Ben and Joey; his son, Jeff Faudskar and grandson, Alex, and his brother, Chet and wife, Elaine. Arvid proudly served in the United States Army from 1951 - 1957. He worked for, and retired from, The First Trust Company, First National Bank (US Bank), St. Paul, MN. He spent many evenings in night school at the University of Minnesota to earn his business degree to better care for his family. Arvid was very active with Toastmasters in MN, serving as Area Governor, helping to build new clubs and earning his Distinguished Toastmaster title (DTM). He was also a leader for teens in the Junior Achievement program. Arvid enjoyed a life-long hobby of rock hounding, lapidary and especially faceting of beautiful gems for his loved ones. Barb always knew she could find him in his shop. He was a longtime member of the Minnesota Mineral Club and the Grand Junction Gem and Mineral Club, holding many offices over the years. Fittingly, his ashes will be placed under his "last rock", a boulder in the Christus Garden at Memorial Gardens Cemetery in Grand Junction. There are many fond memories of things Arvid and Barb shared over the years. They were foster parents to approximately 15 babies through Lutheran Social Services. They had a trailer on the Snake River where they left all the cares of the world behind in the hideaway they called "Nirvana". They raised, trained and showed Bedlington Terriers in conformation and obedience. They finished two champions and obtained one CD degree. They were animal lovers and had many pets over the years, twice adopting from Roice-Hurst. They belonged to square dance clubs in MN and CO and square and round danced for years. They had a travel trailer that they took on many trips after retirement. They enjoyed many seasons of bowling with the Freeway Seniors League. Arvid and Barb celebrated their 49th wedding anniversary in December with a hot air balloon ride in Sedona, AZ. Arvid was quiet, humble, and honest, with a fierce sense of dedication to anything he tackled. His sense of humor was appreciated by many. He taught his children lifelong values and will be deeply missed. There will be a military service, co-officiated by Pastor Tom Hansen, to honor his life at Memorial Gardens, 2970 North Ave. Grand Junction, on Friday, April 9th at 1:00 p.m. Arvid was proud to serve as a bus driver for First Presbyterian Church, so the family would like any memorials to go to the "Bus Ministry" at the church, 3940 27 1/2 Road, Grand Junction, CO 81506.
